Hospital Proceeds Are Sought

Whether proceeds from the sale of the old Hancock General Hospital can be used for purchase of equipment for the new building is to be studied by Sam L. Favre Jr., attorney for the board of supervisors.

Supervisors at their meeting today heard a request from Hospital Administrator Thomas Logue that sale money go for equipment but R. G. Hubbard Jr., board president, recalled that the hospital was conveyed to the county by Kings' Daughters for a token consideration of $1 the board had assumed a moral obligation to use the proceeds for an annex or charity ward bearing the name of Kings' Daughters.

Logue suggested that the money be used for furnish rooms and a sign placed on the door saying furnishing was by Kings' Daughters. Hubbard repeated that the board's promise had been an annex or charity ward and Favre was asked to check the legal aspects involved.

The administrator reported furnishings, such as beds, were being transferred from the old hospital to the county home where all equipment not needed will be sent. Logue announced that 22 patients have been admitted to the new hospital and four major surgeries performed since it opened last week.

A $15,000 bond issue to cover the cost of hardsurfacing streets in Beat 5 including rear of Bay St. Louis, Clermont Harbor, Lakeshore, Waveland and Edgewater was proposed by Hubbard, supervisor of the beat.

The improvements would include 15 miles of streets and roads and construction of two concrete bridges on Washington Street. Date of a vote on the issue and amount of millage have not yet been determined.

Board attorney Sam L. Favre Jr. was requested by Hubbard to prepare the necessary legal notice to be published next week but Favre said it was a lengthy operation and could not be completed in a week and that he needed a detailed list of names of streets and the length of improvements.

Supervisors accepted a $987 bid of Dement Printing Co. for preparing tax receipts for the sheriff and tax collector during the all-day session. Tom L. Kettengill Co. bid $1,198.75.

Two bids on a dragnet for Beat 3 were held over. Bidders were Southern Equipment Sales, Inc., Jackson, $18,193, and Allied Equipment, Inc., Jackson, Tenn., $21,397.

An insurance contract covering the Health Center for $22,000 was approved. Company is American Employers Insurance Co., for which John A. Scafidi is local agent.

Mike Haas, president of the Bay St. Louis Jaycees, introduced Dr. Robert McKinley, general chairman of the Jaycees heavy pageant, who requested the county to advertise in a brochure to be distributed before the Miss Bay St. Louis contest. The board approved subject to a check of the legality by attorney Favre.

A commission executed by Gov. Ross Barnett was read appointing former sheriff Sylvan L. Lester Jr. as state commissioner of elections from May 15 to Aug. 19.

Meter Law Adopted By Bay St. Louis

Bay St. Louis Commission Council Monday adopted an ordinance governing the city's recently installed parking meters.

Effective June 7, Mayor John Scafide said there will be a two-day period of courtesy warnings, after which violators will be fined.

The initial fine is 25 cents. If not paid within 24 hours, it will be raised to $1 and the offender will also be issued an enforcement warrant. Cumulative fines of $.25 an hour for every hour the vehicle remains in the violated area will also be collected.

Tickets for meter violations will be in the form of small red envelopes. An offender shall place the amount of his fine in the envelope and drop it into one of the red FINE-O-METER boxes attached to several meters along the beach.

Mayor Scafide said there will be no impounding of vehicles. "The city isn't equipped to handle something that big," he remarked. "It would be next to impossible."

Considering the theft or destruction of meters, or the administering of slugs to meters, offenders shall be fined from $10 to $100.

Commissioner of Utilities J. Cyril Glover announced no bid was received for the improvement and replacement of the drainage at Hancock and Union Streets.

An ordinance also was enacted requiring a permit for the construction, building or repairing of any wharf or pier to extend over the waters of the bay in cooperation with the beach clean up program.

Before work begins, an application must be filed with the City Clerk, followed by a detailed sketch or drawing of the planned structure, and an itemized list of materials, etc., including labor to be used in the construction.

There will be no need to secure a permit for the destruction of piers or wharves projecting over the water, but all pilings or anything that would prove hazardous to bathers, boaters, fishermen and water skiers must be removed. This ordinance went into immediate effect.

Lastly council voted to install an electric water cooler on the second floor of City Hall.

Waveland Eyes Buying Gulf Gardens Water

Waveland Town Council Tuesday evening re-acted tentative agreement with James C. De Blanc, representing Modern Homes, Inc., to purchase the corporation's water system in Gulf View Gardens. The system presently supplies 37 homes with water and the agreed price was $499 with the town also assuming the firm's obligation to supply the users with water until Jan. 1, 1961, without charge.

Mayor Garfield Ladner was authorized to repair a 20 to 30 foot section of the town-owned pier at the foot of Nicholson Avenue and to have a survey made of the road from St. Anthony Street running between the Young and Rhodes properties in the 4th Ward.

A petition signed by 33 residents objecting to a "junk" heap on Broad Street was presented, but final action was postponed pending an investigation and Town Attorney Dan M. Russell Jr. was asked to look into the legal aspects.

Before recessing until 7:30 p.m., June 14, council approved 12 building permits totaling $16,450 and indicated no more street lights will be installed until the next fiscal year.

Three Vehicles In Collision At Pearlington

A three vehicle collision involving two cars and a trailer truck occurred Thursday, June 2, at 6:30 p.m. just east of the Mississippi-Louisiana state line on highway 90 near Pearlington.

Occupants of the cars were

Mrs. Mary Dunn, New Orleans,

driver of one car, Daniel Jeffries, Lake Charles, La., driver of another, a passenger, Mary L. Long, while driver of the truck was L. E. Ryan, Houston, Texas.

Mrs. Dunn's '56 Oldsmobile apparently struck the side of

to the opposite lane and crashing into the truck, which then struck the bridge, damaged a span and the Jeffries' '59 Plymouth

With the opening of the new Hancock General Hospital, the blood bank has assumed a role of vital importance in the operation and success of the new community facility, Dillman noted. Blood donated will be stored for immediate use here, thus becoming an even more tangible factor in treatment of patients on the local scene.

So that the blood bank will continue to grow and serve the continuing demand for the injured and sick, Dillman is asking every member to bring a friend to Monday night's session and elect a competent slate of officers for the coming year.

County GOP Chairman Wilson Webley will be alternate.

The convention will meet in the House of Representatives at the State Capitol at 10 a.m., Saturday, with Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona keynoting the event.

Meanwhile, McCarty was directed to check the route revisions he is proposing with the Beat 4 trustee, the Rev. S. P.

Powell and the Beat 3 member, Luigi Nesciale, and the drivers involved before the next meeting at 9 a.m. Saturday when it is hoped to set a date for opening bids on the routes.

Nesciale, who has objected to revising the routes because he anticipates complaints from parents, asked the board to assure him it will pick up every child at the same place as last year.

He said he would not oppose the re-routing on that basis.

Attorney Walter J. Phillips

counseled that routes cannot be put out to bid until they are definitive.

Leo Rouse, newly elected principal of Hancock North Central School, met with the board to discuss the faulty situation

there and was directed to use the accepted applications in the manner he deems best to fit teaching needs.

McCarty read a memorandum from the state department of education on driver education courses and the board concurred with his view that because of the teacher shortage it preferred at this time to concentrate on establishing a head at North Central.

It was voted to hire Elvey Neciale, junior at North Central, on a 12-month basis and his wife for 10 months. The clean condition at the school was commended.

Vote is Light For Primary

An estimated 700 voters went to the polls in Hancock County Tuesday in the Democratic primary and gave U. S. Senator James Eastland an overwhelming vote of confidence, backed the right to work amendment to the constitution and supported Circuit Judge Lunsford Casey's bid to unseat Justice Olin Arrington in the 2nd Judicial District.

Unofficial returns from 21 of the county's 25 precincts gave Eastland 586 votes to 44 for opponent Ance Blakeney while the right to work bill piled up 447 for and 161 against. Arrington trailed Casey, 270 to 314.

The vote canvass was made this morning but the official report was not available at press time.

604 Claims 3rd Kiln Road Plans Told At Hearing

The road bed of the new Kiln Road will be three to four feet higher than the old road, Claude Bennett, assistant construction engineer of the State Highway Department, 6 district, said at a public meeting in the Courthouse Friday.

Main purpose of the meeting was to record on a recording machine any objections to the proposed road. The recording will be sent to the U. S. Bureau of Public Roads. No objections were given. M. L. Carroll of the highway department's public relations office in Jackson, who conducted the meeting, said.

Among those speaking were Rudolph O. Vorbusch of Waveland, Bay St. Louis Mayor John A. Scafide, A. G. Damagnan, Dan M. Russell Jr., Sam L. Favre Jr., Leo Seal sr. and Octave W. Delph.

Before recessing until 7:30 p.m., June 14, council approved 12 building permits totaling $16,450 and indicated no more street lights will be installed until the next fiscal year.

Pride and Papers

The Echo is naturally pleased that those who judged the Mississippi Press Association competition felt that this paper used locally taken pictures in a better way newswise than the other MPA members, daily and weekly. On the other hand, along with many papers, we would have preferred to be considered first in general excellence among the Class A or larger weeklies, an honor that went to the Kosciusko Star-Herald.

In any event we will bear in mind the comments of four different speakers who urged those attending the convention sessions to put out the best paper they knew how, and added that a primary requisite for that accomplishment was "to take pride in your product".

As the old joke has it, perhaps we don't do as well as we know how to now, but anyway we'll keep trying to provide Hancock County with the best large weekly in Mississippi or anywhere else.

Three of Four

Last year the Echo pointedly pointed to the traffic danger on U. S. 90 and to a lesser degree to the hazards of driving over the Kiln road. Monday five persons were killed in a head-on crash near Wiggins where the road conditions were near perfect.

Yesterday occurred Hancock County's fourth 1960 fatality attributable to automobiles. It happened on Route 604 as have two of the other three and within a short distance of the two earlier 604 fatal accidents.

This would seem to indicate that the Echo was mistaken in complaining of U. S. 90 and the Kiln road, but we don't think so. Inadequate highways and heavy traffic contribute to the number of fatal and non-fatal accidents, but the primary responsibility rests with the drivers.

Today we are printing the first in a series of articles by Professor Tom Sawyer of Mississippi State that serializes his two week course in driver education. While addressed primarily to the teenager we believe all of us can learn from these articles. "The life you save may be your own."

Help Them Out

The following was given to this paper as a news story. This editor feels that as a news story it would have to be materially shortened, but he concurs so heartily with the view expressed that he is adopting it as his own and it is printed below.

The Hancock General Hospital Women's Auxiliary is contributing an excellent service to the new hospital. However, its membership is hardly adequate to supply 30 women to serve a few hours three times daily and the result is that some of the women are "doubling up" in order to fill in the need.

The service to be rendered so far is directing persons to different parts of the hospital, assisting new entrants into the hospital and providing some little special service such as letter-writing, telephoning messages, caring for a child in the lobby while adults visit patients. All emergencies and accidents naturally are brought into the hospital via the emergency entrance and taken care of by hospital staff, and the nurses whom they need for immediate attention. The volunteers working with the auxiliary naturally have no part in this.

A $2. membership in the Hospital Auxiliary will enable anyone wishing to assist in this good work eligible, and besides the satisfaction of knowing the part one is playing in a splendid Christian endeavor, great aid is being rendered to a new enterprise and Bay St. Louis's great dream come true - our new hospital.

Mr. Logue stated on Monday that 22 patients and 5 new babies were in the hospital; hence, our auxiliary will Teach Them To Live!

By Tom Sawyer

The key to safe driving is to develop good, basic patterns and habits. One of the best ways for a teenager to learn this is to take the course in Driver Education.

A leading educator said recently: "We have evidence that youths trained to drive in high school have 40 to 50 per cent fewer violations than similar groups not so trained."

Fifteen per cent of all drivers are young men and women under the age of twenty-five. They must be taught the proper control of automobiles. The purpose of this column is to teach you how to get the maximum enjoyment from your driving. As one popular television announcer says:

"No matter how new, the safest device in your car is you!"

Some interesting facts about driving safely were recently (1958) published by the G. M. C. It was entitled "Do You Know?" and asked some of these questions:

1. Do you know that one out of four cars on the road will be involved in an accident this year, and that one out of twenty-four cars will be involved in an accident in which there is a death or an injury?
2. Do you know that your chances of not having a serious accident are better than 60 to 1 if you avoid the 3 major causes?
 - a. Exceeding speed limits.
 - b. Driving on the wrong side of road.
 - c. Failure to give right-of-way.
3. Do you know that 24 states have few-

In my opinion taking er people killed than were injured and killed in traffic accidents in 1957?

4. Do you know that while rain, snow, and curves are hazards, almost 80% of accidents happen on straight roads in dry, clear weather?

5. Do you know that two-thirds of the traffic deaths occur at night although only 1/3 of total mileage is driven after sunset?

6. Do you know that, in the latest National Safety Check of 3 million vehicles, the items most often found in dangerous condition were lights, brakes, exhaust, and tires?

7. Do you know that at 30 miles per hour, your car travels 33 feet while you are thinking about stopping—and another 44 feet after you hit the brake pedal?

8. Do you know that at 40 mph, you are betting your life on the driver ahead if you follow closer than 5 car lengths?

9. Do you know that more accidents occur on Saturday, fewer on Tuesday, than on any other day of the week?

Who are the men back of your gas service? The chances are that there's Ray Cleaver, or someone in a job like his, to make sure you have plenty of gas at your range or water heater when you want it. United Gas operates nearly 50 compressor stations, with some 175,000 horsepower, to boost gas through the pipe lines to places where it's needed. The big compressor engines are essential to dependable gas service. But they would mean nothing without men like "Cleve" to make sure the gas goes through in the volumes required to meet our customers' needs.

Tax Assessor George Heitzmann appeared and said he is ready to make up the tax assessment rolls and pointed out that Market Industries, Inc., on U.S. 90 and Monimur Panel Co. on Ulman Avenue were new industries. The board voted to exempt the two companies from all county taxes for five years effective January, 1958.

Mrs. Faye Ragan of Monroe, La., complained that stakes had been placed alongside the road leading from the highway to North Central School on her mother's property; that if the county intended to widen the road an easement would have to be obtained. She was assured the stakes were unauthorized and she would be contacted should the county desire to widen the road.

It was noted that a number of corrections needed by the new hospital were being corrected by the contractors.

A representative of the Wells-

Taylor Co. appeared regarding non-payment for lumber delivered and said to be received by former member Mrs. Kellar. He was requested to send photostatic copies of signed delivery tickets so payment could be made.

Clerk Gladstone Ladner read a letter from Sam Whifford regarding tree tops being left in roads by pulpwood operators.

Most of the trouble has been in the Anoley vicinity. Whifford's letter included the names of producers who operate in the area and the board voted to have them summoned to appear at the July 5 meeting to discuss the situation.

A permit for dredging Bayou

Caddy was received, signed by

R. W. Lowe, colonel in the U.S.

Army Corps of Engineers.

Hospital Auxiliary Adds Seven to Roll

Seven new members were welcomed by the Hancock General Hospital auxiliary at its June meeting Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. Partridge on Sycamore Street.

Joining the group which has expanded responsibilities with the opening of the new hospital are Mesdames H. Green, J. Gillespie, A. Mercier, H. Chapman, G. Sezen, u. H. Ramridge and Miss Kathleen Remshaw.

Mrs. Alvah P. Smith presided and Mrs. T. J. Garner gave the opening prayer.

The treasurer reported on expenditures for equipment with which the auxiliary is supplying the hospital, including 25 chairs for the conference room, a desk and chair for volunteers in the lobby and napkins ordered for the opening.

Mrs. E. Orte, secretary, reported 40 cherry colored smocks have been bought with several more on order for auxiliary members to wear while on hospital duty. Each cost $4.25.

Because of the work load with volunteer services the July meeting will not be dispensed with and the time was changed to 10 a.m. July 11.

Thomas O. Logue, hospital administrator, expressed appreciation for the auxiliary's assistance in the hospital dedication and opening. He outlined projects with which it may assist, emphasizing the primary function of a member is as hostess and assisting especially at visiting hours.

Members were urged to attend the convention of the Mississippi

Mary Carter says...

buy only POST  HALF the PAINT you need!

"How many gallons of paint do you figure it will take to cover the outside of your home? Eight? Twelve? Twenty? Whatever the amount, it represents a big investment in dollars. You may be postponing some badly needed redecorating because of the cost.

"There's no need to put it off any longer! When you use Mary Carter paints,

"YOU BUY ONLY HALF AS MUCH!"

"That's right — buy half as much paint as the job requires and I'll GIVE you the rest, absolutely free of extra cost! That's the unique Mary Carter merchandising method that has positively rocked the paint industry! That's my famous 'share the profits' plan, and it can be your good fortune if there's painting of any kind to be done around your home right now!

"There are two good reasons why I can afford to give away every second can of the very best grade of paint, free of extra cost: Because of my operational economies, I can manufacture top quality paints, enamels and varnishes at less cost, and, in addition, I'M SATISFIED WITH A PROFIT OF PENNIES PER GALLON!"

HOW MARY CARTER'S FREE PAINT OFFER IS POSSIBLE:

MANUFACTURE

Mary Carter's high-speed paint manufacturing equipment holds costs to a minimum.

MULTIPLE TRANSPORTATION

ALTAR SOCIETY, ST. MARGARET'S OFFICES WITH FATHER MERCIER

Altar Society, Daughters Hold Joint Luncheon Meet

The annual luncheon-meeting of the Altar Society of Our Lady of the Gulf Church and St. Margaret's Daughters was held last Thursday on the grounds of the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Brignac.

Stylish ladies were seated at long tables which decorated for the occasion with summer flowers in shades of deep blue, yellow and green. Similar arrangements graced the playroom.

After the luncheon, the Rev. Adrien Mercier opened St. Margaret's meeting with a prayer. Mrs. V. J. Piazza presided, reporting that a large sum had been given for the New Hancock General Hospital.

Charity reports revealed eight families had been assisted.

Plant Sale Slated

A plant sale will be held in front of Waveland Drug Store Saturday afternoon and Sunday morning, sponsored by the fair committee of St. Cletus' Church, headed by Mrs. Dorothy Murphy.

Miss Deschamp Married to Philip Hoda

St. Joseph Catholic Church at Picayune, was the setting Saturday, for the marriage of Miss Lyndell Mary Deschamp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Deschamp of Picayune, to Philip Ray Hoda, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Hoda of Kiln.

Church and lighted tapes formed a backdrop for the ceremony performed by the Rev. Vernon Dannerman, assistant pastor.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an original gown of white silk organza over taffeta. It featured a flared bodice with long sleeves ending in Cain points. Scallops of lace framed the V neckline. Her fingertip veil of illusion left from a traditional bridal headdress and she carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations.

Maid of honor was Miss Jane Hoda of Pass Christian, and bridesmaids were Miss Jacqueline Koenig, Kiln, and Miss Peggy Deschamp, sister of the bride.

Witnesses of Pass Christian married at their home, were Mrs. Verda Holley, Mrs. Anna, and Walter Cason, Mrs. Cason's son, Bay St. Louis.

Other witnesses were Mrs. Lillian Jackson, Mrs. Verda Holley, Mrs. Anna, and Walter Cason, Mrs. Cason's son, Bay St. Louis.

Officiant was Rev. John J. O'Farrell, pastor of St. Joseph's.

Reception followed at Kiln High Center.

The bride's table was covered with a three tiered wedding cake topped by miniature bride and groom. The cake was surrounded by pink carnations and white geraniums.

Serving were Mrs. Billy P. Pender, mother of the bride, and Margene Hoda, sister of the groom. Jimmy Jones, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer.

Mrs. Clarence Lester provided a program of instrumental music.

City Echoes

Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Grass, and daughter Diane, and Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Luke, and daughter, Prima Lee, vacationed last week in Green Cove Springs, Fla. While there they attended the wedding of Miss Vivian Mary LeBlanc, in which Mr. Grass was a member of the wedding party. Miss LeBlanc is Mr. Grass's niece. From Green Cove Springs, they motored to St. Augustine, and then home.

Karl Gottschalk, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Gottschalk of DeMontzun Ave., returned last week from Oxford where he has been attending the University of Mississippi. Karl left Sunday for Camp Lejeune, N. C. for two weeks Marine Corps Reserve training. Upon his return Karl has accepted a position for the summer at Thunder Mountain Ranch in Bevans, N.J.

Sheila Gottschalk spent the weekend in New Orleans as a guest of Sandra Rector formerly of Bay St. Louis. Sheila attended the graduation exercises at Ridgewood Prep and the graduation ball while in New Orleans.

John Gottschalk left Monday for Vicksburg where he has accepted a position with Southern Industrial Contractors, Inc., for the summer.

Assisting in serving were the Misses Sally Chevis, Eleanor O'Farrell, Alina Courregé, Peggy Brockman and Angela Smith, the latter four being cousins of the bride.

For traveling, the bride changed to a pearl gray silk organza shawl with matching pink organza hat, adding a pink sweetheart rose corsage. The couple will live in New Orleans.

The after rehearsal dinner was given Saturday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Smith sr. and jr.

Legion Auxiliary Elects on Monday

The American Legion auxiliary will meet at 8 p.m. Monday in the American Legion Home. All members are urged to attend election of officers for the coming year.

Mrs. William Tynes of Poplarville, cousin of the bride, was matron of honor and Miss Peggy Poole, also of Poplarville, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were the Misses Lynne Hall of Waveland, Carol Haynes of New Orleans, Juanita Stevens of Lucedale and Betty Smith of Clermont Harbor, another cousin.

The attendants wore white organdy over taffeta gowns with cummerbunds and carried bouquets of pink asters. They wore pink satin shoes and matching pearls and lace tiaras.

The flower girls, cousins also, were Christine Brockman and Yvonne Jackson, were in similar dresses and carried rose petals in dainty baskets trimmed in pink taffeta and white tulle. Another cousin, Glenn Jackson, was ringbearer.

The groom's brother, Dale Hanchey, of DeRidder, was best man. Groomsmen were Clyde Paul of DeRidder, Skip Wilkerson of New Orleans, William Tynes of Poplarville and James Tamplin Jr. and Larry Crow of DeRidder.

A reception followed at the home of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Easter White, at Lakeshore. The bride's table was covered with a cloth of white lace over pink and centered with the four-tiered cake topped with wedding bells and a miniature bride and groom. The bride's mother remained at the home of her mother, Mrs. Easter White, at Lakeshore. The bride's table was covered with a cloth of white lace over pink and centered with the four-tiered cake topped with wedding bells and a miniature bride and groom. The bride's mother re-

Shoulda Gone Fishin'

BY EDDIE ENGELHORN

Specified trout, green trout, perch, land crabs, soft crabs, flounder, red fish, catfish, and le, channel mullet — you name it, we got it. All that is necessary is the desire to go out, a boat, a pole and something for the fish to hit on. It isn't even necessary to have a boat or a pole if you have a light and spear. Fishing is at its best and can't be beat as a participating sport. Records show there are more fishermen than baseball players, football players, etc., combined. We hear the fresh air is good for sinus trouble, too, not to mention nerves.

Half Moon continues to be the spot for specks while Pearl and Jordan Rivers are paying off for big and big casters.

Ray Kidd stockpiled species last week getting the record catch we have heard of with 48 weighing about 120 pounds at Half Moon using live shrimp and live lures. Says he got just about as many on the lures as on bait. His partner was Vic Fauver, a beginner from New York, Ray says. They were out early and home by 11:30 a.m.

Another catch at Half Moon worthy of mention was Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Minchell's 48 specks weighing from two to two and a half pounds each. Minchell says they kept complaining that the fish were trying to pull him into the water. Don't believe it — unless her cast alights before she's a seasoned fisherman, Ruth Ray says. They left early and home by 11:30 a.m.

Another catch at Half Moon worthy of mention was Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Jones of Long Beach and grandsons of Everett L. Lake of Bay St. Louis, delivered the valiantary at commencement exercises of Long Beach High School Tuesday. He has maintained a four-year average of 96.64 points to enroll at Mississippi State University to major in electrical engineering.

Fishing families, "Lucky" Basil Kennedy and Jim Gillis are our every morning casting crusaders by the hundreds on the reefs off the seawall. Big ones go in the frying pan, medium ones get thrown back and little ones go in today's well for bait to catch the big ones.

One of last week's catches was Waveland Town Marshal Fred Bourgeois' 10½ pound redfish caught off the seawall. Wimber what ordinance the fish was violating?

Another Waveland, Al. fisher, former Pelican and big league baseball player, made the news in New Orleans this week helping down to Jim Wayne as Pan American regatta queen at ceremonies designating June 13 as Bay Week. He is commander of the New Orleans Pioneers Squadron, sponsor of the regatta.

Reports continue to come in on Half Moon and we hear from an informed source that Gerald Kennedy of Waveland and brother-in-law Eddie Gillis of New Orleans, who is spelling the summer in Waveland, got 133 good ones. They were early Sunday and were seen cleaning fish all afternoon. Sunday Eddie, who must be a true angler, got an 11-pound blackfish a short distance off the seawall.

The Kennedys and Gillis are VALENTINIAN — William Jones Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Jones of Long Beach and grandson of Everett L. Lake of Bay St. Louis, delivered the valiantary at commencement exercises of Long Beach High School Tuesday. He has maintained a four-year average of 96.64 points to enroll at Mississippi State University to major in electrical engineering.

Carried on among schools in the city, the contest includes several classes. Jeanie Ann was winner in class 2, elementary grades 4 through 6. Margie Ann was winner in the high school division, class 3, while Carolyn was a runner-up in class 3.

Jeanie attends BayHigh, Margie Ann and Carolyn go to St. Joseph Academy.

from sale of sporting guns and ammunition.

June 15 at sunrise opens the shrimp season to night and day shrimpers. The time was set at one o'clock Monday night of the Mississippi Marine Conservation Commission in Biloxi. The commission also adopted a resolution outlawing shrimp boats from pulling two trawls in inside waters. According to the resolution no boat can pull more than a 30-foot trawl in waters from the shoreline to the chain of islands approximately 10 miles out. Boats may pull a 12-foot trawl along with the large trawl, according to the resolution which is in line with other coastal states.

Donald Caldwell is enjoying a week's vacation. Last week he and James (Red) Kimmel stayed away a total of 35 flounders speared in Saenger's Lake up the Jordan. Donald says he got an 18-pounder on Tuesday. Says he saw Ed Shindell hauling his boat up the river. Abdon Wayne and Woody Allison had about 70 soft shells the other night caught in the Bay.

More consistent soft shellers are the Lloyd Cummings and Eddie Estates. We have seen so many of their catches, usually running around 10 dozen that it's no longer news to us. Makes an excellent main course for Sunday dinner. Eddie says, to which we can testify.

Bob Clapp Will Coach Boys' Play

Softball uniforms have been saved for six teams in the Little League. Mrs. Theo Tudury, chairwoman of the Parks and Play Commission, announced today Clapp was engaged by commission to coach and help supervise play for three months, said.

One hundred and fifteen boys signed up for the league and softball games are being played each afternoon at 4 p.m. on the diamond at Dunbar and Uman. Several managers are available but at least one more sponsor is needed to complete the double and anyone interested is asked to call Mrs. Tudury, chairwoman of sponsors and a complete schedule of games for the summer will be released next week, she said.

Youth Center Kicks Off Kilm

Underway Youth Center pulled a surprise last night trouncing third-place Coast Electric 9-3 in Wednesday's softball games, while trounced KC 14-4 in the doubleheader.

Unbeaten Trapani continues to hold the league lead with Stieffel only one game behind. Coast Electric is third and there is a three-way tie between Regal, Carter and Kiln for fourth with Carter only a half game behind the fourth slot.

The two top teams, Trapani and Stieffel go into action Friday evening on Kiln and Bankston respectively, Trapani and Kiln meeting in the nightcap.

Father Danenmann Paces Kiln Squad

Father Vernon Danenmann of Church of the Annunciation staged a one-man show on defense while his teammates slammed the ball to down Bankston 11-9 in the nightcap Monday night on the Bay softball diamond.

Holding down shortstop position Father Vernon snagged three hot grounders and pegged the pelter to first to get the first three men in the sixth inning and repeated the performance in the seventh. He got a standing cheer from the crowd as he left the field.

Bankston got an early lead when Paul Raynaud blasted a home run with two men on.

Bert Stieffel came through with a grand slam with one aboard in the opener, pulling his team out of a hole and licking an unexpectedly tough Carter squad 8-4.

In Friday's games Trapani fans held their breath until the last man was out as the Traps

Women's Golf Winners Listed

Mrs. Ed Gamard and Mrs. Powell Glass Jr. won the blind hole tournament staged during Ladies day Tuesday at Pass Christian Isles Golf Club. Mrs. Gamard won the nine-hole division with a net 11 and Mrs. Glass won in 18 holes with a net 23.

First round of the monthly match play tournament was completed with Mrs. John David defeating Mrs. Guy Bufkin; Mrs. Jack Lang won over Mrs. Cary Spence; Mrs. Gamard def. Mrs. W. T. Johnston; Mrs. Roy Graziani def. Mrs. Richard Happ and Mrs. Lester Walters vs. Mrs. Tom McAuley.

The second round, to be played through next Tuesday, pit Mrs. David vs. Mrs. Glass, Mrs. Lang vs. Mrs. Gamard, Mrs. John Griffen vs. Mrs. Graziani, Mrs. Walters vs. the winner of the match between Mrs. Howard Adams and Mrs. John Ellis.

National Golf Day

Area golfers will have an opportunity to beat the big boys in National Golf Day which will be observed now through Saturday at Pass Christian Isles Golf Club. Professional Dick Tarleton said local players will compete with handicap against the medal scores posted by Billy Casper and Bob Rosburg at Cherry Hills County Club, Denver, Colo., site of the 1960 national open.

Men, Boys, Even Girls Get Into Softball Swing

Looks like softball fans will be able to see a game every night soon. Already the big league is playing Monday, Wednesday and Friday nights.

Little League is about ready to go and are asking for one night a week and now the ladies are ready to get in the act.

The spirited lasses have formed at least five teams and found five sponsors, Bankston's A. and A. Service Station, Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church, Al Vetter and Kiln. They seem to be somewhat crowded out by the men and boys teams and have been playing wherever they can find a sand lot but if our knowledge of the ladies is any criterion, they will find a way.

Falcon is having the best first year any car ever had . . . over 250,000 already sold since introduction . . . going at the record rate of 10,000 every week. What makes Falcon the world's most successful new car?

Economy!

To begin with, Falcon is America's very lowest-priced 6-passenger car*. . . $64 to $154 less than the other compacts.

"Falcon delivers the best fuel economy of the three new compact cars," says Motor Trend magazine. Owner reports and fleet operator logs consistently show Falcon mileage figures of up to 30 miles per gallon with regular gas.

Falcon goes 4,000 miles between oil changes, costs less to service, less to license and in most places, less to insure.

Falcon saves you more and still gives you full room for 6 big people and all their luggage. Small wonder Falcon has become first so fast!
